PERMISSION AGREEMENT

_____ (“Interviewee”) hereby provides permission to the Center for Cultural Preservation (“the Center”) for the purpose of the Student Oral History Film Contest and for developing an archive of mountain oral histories and documentary films (“the project”) on mountain culture and heritage. Such permission includes:

- 1) Use of the interviewee’s videotaped interview about mountain culture and any provided stills ;
- 2) Reproducing an excerpt of the interview video and photos to the media to promote the project, onto the Center’s website and other media that promotes the film project;
- 3) Making copies of the video or transcripts at local/regional heritage institutions for public access.

This permission is provided exclusively and permanently to the Center in order to advance the cultural, educational and artistic objectives of the Center.

All copyrights, title and interest to any materials used remain with the interviewee unless he wishes to transfer this right to the Center. The Center agrees to provide one copy of the final version of the project to interviewee.

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. Any amendment to this agreement must be in writing and signed by the parties responsible.
